VS.

CRIMINAL CASE NO.: 4:22-cr-148-MPM-JMV-1

JOHN R. COLEMAN

DEFENDANT

MOTION TO CONTINUE

COMES NOW, the defendant, JOHN R. COLEMAN, by and through undersigned counsel, and files this, his Motion to Continue and as grounds in support of same would respectfully state unto this Honorable Court the following, to-wit:

1.

Discovery has been received and it consists of hundreds of gigabytes/documents and files that have required a significant amount of time to review. In addition, information regarding potential loss has been requested from the Bankruptcy proceeding that has not been completed.

2.

There is also a pending Leflore County Chancery Court action where the above defendant is listed as a defendant party; and the above defendant is involved with providing information.

3.

Undersigned submits after conference with the Government, there is no objection to this request, and counsel believes a trial may not be required.

4.

The defendant, after being fully advised of his right to a speedy trial pursuant to the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. §3161, hereby waives said right with respect to the time that may result pursuant to this motion.

WHEREFORE PREMISES CONSIDERED, the defendant, JOHN R. COLEMAN, by and through undersigned counsel respectfully requests that this, his Motion to Continue Trial be received and considered by this Honorable Court and after same an Order issued granting a continuance, until the October or November term of Court.
