

IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF MISSISSIPPI

IN RE: JOHN COLEMAN DEBTOR

CASE NO: 21-11833
CHAPTER 7

OBJECTION TO CASE DISMISSAL

COMES NOW the Chapter 7 Trustee (the "Trustee") and files this Objection to Case Dismissal and states as follows:

1. The Trustee was appointed to this case on March 2, 2023, and, after conducting a preliminary investigation, believes significant estate assets may be available for liquidation and distribution to creditors.

2. This Court entered an Order and Notice of Deficiency (doc. no. 273) requiring the debtor to perform certain tasks by March 16, 2023, or the case would be dismissed.

3. While the Trustee agrees with the Order and Notice of Deficiency in that the debtor should perform the tasks set out therein, the Trustee requests the case not be dismissed as dismissal could jeopardize the Trustee's ability to administer the bankruptcy estate.

WHEREFORE, the Trustee prays that this case not yet be dismissed.

RESPECTFULLY submitted, this the 12th day of March, 2023.
